This policy aims to give all members of the school community clear guidance about the rationale, principles, strategies and expectations of the Nutrition policy at Blackwood Primary School.

Introduction

As a school we are passionate about health and encouraging young people to become healthy, confident individuals who can make positive decisions for life. We recognise that learners spend around a third of their time at school between the ages of four and sixteen. The food and drink opportunities provided in school can make a positive contribution towards providing children and young people with a nutritious balanced diet, positive food experiences and encouraging them to develop positive behaviours for life.

This policy will enable learners to link the positive effects that good nutrition can have on health and wellbeing.

At Blackwood Primary School we are committed to encouraging our learners to lead healthy lifestyles. We believe that healthy learners will be able to take full advantage of the educational opportunities that the school provides. The partnership of home and school is critical in shaping young people, and their future health.

Rationale

A poor diet is a major contributing factor to increasing levels of childhood obesity and associated health problems. In response to these concerns, the Welsh Government has produced Healthy Weight: Healthy Wales, a long term strategy which outlines the vital role schools play as healthy settings to positively influence future life outcomes.

The Healthy Eating in Schools \(Nutritional Standards and Requirements\) \(Wales\) 2013 Regulations sets out to improve the nutritional standards of food and drink provided in schools in Wales.

The Wellbeing of Future Generations \(Wales\) Act has at its core an intention to improve the health, social, economic, environmental, and cultural wellbeing of Wales. Promoting well-balanced, healthy diets will be a key component of achieving the ambitions within this Act.

Aim

The aim of this Nutrition policy is to provide a 'whole school approach' to healthy eating and hydration in Blackwood Primary School by equipping learners with the knowledge, skills and experiences to establish and maintain life-long active lifestyles and positive eating habits. We at

Blackwood Primary School aim to ensure that nutrition becomes integral to the overall value system of the school and a common thread of best practice that runs through the curriculum and the whole school community.
