Privacy Notice Name:

Processing pupil information

Description of Privacy Notice:

This Privacy Notice describes how the school will process personal information about pupils and families.

How we will use your information

The school processes personal information about pupils and their families to support pupil learning and monitor attainment, to provide pastoral care and to keep children safe. We also process personal information to meet the statutory duties placed upon us by Welsh Government, to administer optional school trips and activities.

The school takes its responsibilities under data protection law very seriously, and will store and use all personal information securely, disposing of it when no longer required. Personal information may be shared securely for clear purposes with other organisations such as Caerphilly County Borough Council or other schools that provide a service to pupils/families. You have a number of rights in relation to your personal information including the right of access to information and the right of complaint. For further information please click the following link blackwoodprimary.org

Full Privacy NoticeHow we will use your information*Source and type of information being processed*Categories of personal data obtain

Most of the information that the school holds/uses about you has been collected from you directly, but some information may have been received from other organisations/sources, as listed below.

The school has obtained the following categories of your personal data that make up your education record:

- personal identifiers and contacts (such as name, unique pupil number, contact details and address)
- characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, free school meal eligibility and immigration status)
- safeguarding information (such as court orders and professional involvement)
- special educational needs (including the needs and ranking)
- medical and administration (such as doctors information, child health, dental health, allergies, medication and dietary requirements)
- attendance (such as sessions attended, number of absences, absence reasons and any previous schools attended)
- performance in internal and national assessments and examinations
- behavioural information (such as exclusions and any relevant alternative provision put in place)

Source of the personal data

This information has been collected from:

Pupils/families directly, (e.g. via registration forms at the start of the school year, school trip applications, etc)

- Caerphilly County Borough Council Education Directorate
- Caerphilly County Borough Council Social Services Directorate (if applicable)
- This information has been shared with the school by a previous school attended by the pupil

If you would like further information on the source of this information please contact the school.

Your Obligations

Certain pupil data is essential for the schools' operational use. Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory due to a legal or contractual obligation (see below), some of it is optional, and if this is the case you will be asked to give your consent.

We will inform you at the point of collection whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this, and any consequences should you decide not to provide information or to subsequently withdraw consent.

Purpose and legal basis for using your information

Purpose of processing

We process personal information about pupils and their families:

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services
- to keep children safe (food allergies, or emergency contact details)
- to meet the statutory duties placed upon us for Welsh Government data collections
- to administer trips and activities, catering and free school meal management,

Legal basis for processing

For the processing of personal data to be lawful, an Article 6 condition from the General Data Protection Regulations 2016 is required.

Mandatory school processing of pupil information is covered by the Article 6 condition - processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject. The legal obligation is contained within the Education Act 1996 and associated Welsh Government regulations.

Optional processing of personal data is covered by the Article 6 condition – explicit consent. If this is the case, you have the right to withdraw consent. Please contact the school for further information.

Data Protection legislation provides extra protection for certain classes of information called 'special category' personal data, which includes:

- Physical or mental health or condition
- Politics
- Racial or ethnic origin
- Religion or other beliefs of a similar nature
- Sex life
- Sexual orientation
- Trade union membership
- Genetics
- Biometrics (where used for identification purposes)

Data Protection legislation also provides extra protection for personal data in relation to criminal allegations, proceedings, outcomes and sentences.

If any information falls within these definitions, additional conditions are required from Article 9 for special category personal data and Article 10 for personal data relating to crimes. These additional conditions are contained in the UK Data Protection Bill, due to be enacted during 2018. When the Bill has been enacted this privacy notice will be updated, but if you have any questions in the meantime please contact the school.

Who will have access to your information

Identity of Data Controller and Data Protection Officer

The Data Controller for your information is Blackwood Primary School.

The Data Protection Officer is contracted by the school to Caerphilly County Borough Council. You can contact the school Data Protection Officer on 01443 864322 or by email at dataprotection@caerphilly.gov.uk

Sharing information with Welsh Government

The Welsh Government receives information on pupils directly from schools normally as part of statutory data collection which consists of the following:

- Post-16 data collection
- Pupil Level Annual School Census (PLASC)
- Educated other than at school (EOTAS) pupil level collection
- National data collection (NDC)
- Attendance collection
- Welsh National Tests (WNT) data collection

In addition to the data collected as part of PLASC, the Welsh Government and local authorities also receive information regarding National Curriculum assessments, public examination results, and attendance data at individual pupil level which comes from Schools and /or Awarding Bodies (e.g. WJEC).

The Welsh Government uses this personal information for research (carried out in a way that ensures individual children and young people cannot be identified) and for statistical purposes, to inform, influence and improve education policy and to monitor the performance of the education service as a whole. Examples of the sort of statistics produced can be viewed at www.wales.gov.uk/statistics. Further information is on the Welsh Governments’ use of personal data is set out within the Welsh Governments’ Privacy Policy which is available here.
